Two Junior Members

Join Suffrage Party Two junior members, children in pina-ores, joined the National Woman's Party yesterday afternoon. Little Elea-nor and Marjorie Sigsby Small, of 1731 Twentieth street, came into headquar-ters, marching beside their aunt, Mrs. Henry Lockwood, chairman of the party's branch in the Third Congres-sional district of Virginia.

Both are great grandchildren of Gen.
Henry Lockwood, with five generations of navy men behind them. Their father is at the front in France. "We want to remember we belonged when we grow up," said little Eleanor. "Will it come soon?" asked*Marjorle.

The State of Tennessee is going to make a terrific fight against conscription in the present war crisis, because it does not want the overwhelming negro population of that State to become too proficient with firearms, according to George F. Milton, well-known publisher of Chattanoga. anooga.

we were going to keep out negroes, we'd have to get rid of alcohol." There are

"I'd like to be in Washsington the night the town goes dry," remarked Thomas F. Fielder, of Norfolk, Va., who is registered at the Raleigh. "It's going to be the wildest night your town has known for a long time. People who never drank to excess in their lives are liable to go on an awful 'bend' when they realize that on the next day alco-hol will be but a memory. 'Down in our town, they're giving fruit lemonade parties now, where the highball and the Bronx once reigned supreme. You've got a lot of hotels in Washsington for a town of this size and some of them are going to be hit hard, if Norfolk's experience can be taken as an example. "The most interesting thing, however.

about a town that has just gone dry is the queer stir-up that will be in evidence for days afterward. In a big city, there are more drinking men than most people realize and the whole town most people realize and the whole town or at least, the business part—is going to act for a few days just like a man who's gone on the water wagon and doesn't like anyone to mention the fact. "You'd think that people who drink would stock up heavily when they know their town is going dry, but you'd be surprised at the way people will trust to luck. I was talking to a real estate man here and he told me that already lessors of apartments are making plans to curtail any tendency to turn apartto curtail any tendency to turn apart-ments into private cafes. Norfolk has been dry for months, but the town is only beginning to get into a new stride. Prohibition is all right, but it's a tough job getting used to it."

SAYS WOMEN OPPOSE CONSCRIPTION PLAN

Suffragist Senator Declares Money Should Be Sacrificed Before Men.

State Senator Helen Ring Robinson, of Colorado, declared in a statement given out here yesterday that the women voters of the West were "greatly disturbed" at the talk of drafting men for the army. Mrs. Robinson is a Democrat and campaigned in seven Western States for President Wilson, six of which, she says, he carried. Her statement in part follows:

says, he carried. Her statement in part follows:

"We voting women of the West have been greatly disturbed over the War Department's suggestion that our boys shall be drafted for this war. We are willing to see them reduced to the level of European conscripts. That seems to us too much like the Prussianism we are in this war to oppose; too much like trying to cast out the devil in the name of the devil. of the devil.

of the devil.

"Mr. Wilson himself furnished us our platform when he said that we were going into this war because of the destruction of human life, not over propstruction of human life, not over property rights. By the same token, before we yield to the conscription of life, we demand the conscription of property for this war. The superfluous millions of Mr. Rockefeller, for instance, should be conscripted for the country's use ahead of the life of the young lad whose life is all he has. The West will certainly oppose the conscription of men unless accompanied by the conscription of money."

CLEAN STOMACH MAKES A WELL

The body is a highly organized machine of complicated parts in which the stomach, liver and kidneys work for the common good. Damage to any one of these organs interfers with man as a motor mechanism. If you will clean the stomach, liver and bowels occasionally with a gentle laxative you can keep well. Too much fuel in man's machine, such as eating too much meat, or alcohol or tea, nervous overwork and lack of exercise in outdoor air bring constipation and bad health. Eat less meat, plenty of vegetables, and with air and good exercise you need little else. If the liver needs rousing-and most of us need this once a week-take a safe vegetable extract of the leaves of aloe, May-apple, root of jalap made into a tiny sugarcoated pill, sold by almost every druggist as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets and first put up nearly fifty years ago

Most people die eventually of an over-acid condition. If the blood can be rendered more alkaline, the longer we live. With regular hours, six to eight glasses of water between meals, sensible coarse food and a chance to get the poisons out of the system, a man will live to be a hundred. But, unfortunately, our highly nervous way of living brings increased storage of uric acid in the body. This acts as a poison, and consequently we suffer from headaches, neuralgia, lumbago, aches or pains, rheumatism, gout-

Get rid of this uric acid poison by taking a harmless medicine called Anuric, which throws out the uric acid by stimulating the kidneys. Drink a pint of hot water before meals and take Anuric (double or triple strength) after meals and at bed time. Anuric can be obtained at almost any drug store, or send $1.00 to Doctor Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for full treatment,
